

A Look Inside Musical Theatre

WITH BERNIE HUPPERTS

FREE ZOOM WORKSHOP

Thursdays, February 4, 11 & 18

10:00 AM – 11:30 AM

Registration Required: By Feb 1, 2021

Musical Theater: A Quick Look at Who Owns the American Dream

Musical theater is one of the American art forms. Using a video and discussion format in a Zoom class setting, this three-part series will explore a variety of stellar musicals ranging from Show Boat to Hamilton whose themes reflect America's struggle with bigotry and tolerance, the perpetual argument of nature versus nurture and self-identity.

About the Instructor - Bernie Hupperts directed drama and musicals in a high school and community setting since the early 1970s. He currently serves as the director of the Northwoods Community Players which performs radio plays and is also a drama coach at Northland Pines High School while working on the high school's annual musical.

This workshop is open to adults/teens from anywhere in the country. Registration is required. A Zoom access link will be emailed to all registrants prior to each scheduled Thursday class.

Deadline for registration: Feb 1 by 4 PM CST
