

Summer 2021 Theatre Teaching Internship

LOLA Arts is seeking an intern to teach theatre activities to children for a minimum of 4 weeks, culminating with a performance on the last day.

Dates negotiable between mid-June, through mid-August.

The Summer Theatre Intern will be the creative director of a theatre program for children ages 7 through 16. Through a variety of classes/activities/rehearsals, the program will introduce students to acting, singing or dance, with a live short performance at the end. LOLA Executive Director or other LOLA representative will supervise and work with the intern to formulate all aspects of this program.

The intern will be offered free housing in the LOLA Arts apartment and earn a stipend of $200 per week. Many opportunities for other part-time supplemental income are available in the area. There are also plenty of nearby places to enjoy the outdoors. Applicants should have completed at least one year of college/technical school and have experience/expertise in theatre and/or creative writing.

Responsibilities:

- 24-30 work hours per week – additional hours may be requested
- Monday - Thursday (Schedule to be determined with intern & LOLA representative)
- The last Friday of the period will be the recital/performance
- Act as a LOLA representative to the public visiting the LOLA Center for the Arts

Internship Outcomes:

- Hands-on classroom teaching experience with children & adults
- Develop leadership skills
- Gain an effective approach to working with young people
- Set and meet teaching goals
- Meet deadlines
- Develop communication skills
- Create, coordinate, and direct final performance
