JG Everest, Composer/ Director/Artist and Historian will lead 3-days of workshops to nourish the creative spirit through poetry, photography, music, and an interactive exhibit.

CONNECTIONS THROUGH PHOTOGRAPHY

Saturday, June 19, 2021 (10 AM - 1 PM)

Photographer, Mark Schermeister leads an outdoor site-specific workshop exploring the ways photography can open our eyes to nature's hidden magic. Bring your own smartphone with a camera to take and share photos.

CONNECTIONS THROUGH MUSIC

Saturday, June 19, 2021 (3 PM - 5 PM)

JG Everest leads a series of listening exercises and sound-making activities that bring attention to the existing aural ecosystem of the site. Music instruments will be provided or bring your own.

CONNECTIONS THROUGH POETRY

Sunday, June 20, 2021 (12 PM - 3 PM)

Poet, J.K. Roche shares her creative approach and the role of nature in the writing process. This class offers a chance to experiment with writing and reflection. Bring your own notebook and writing tool.

CONNECTIONS THROUGH INTERACTIVE EXHIBIT

Monday, June 21, 2021

(Drop-in anytime between 11 AM - 4 PM). No Registration required.

A free interactive exhibit will incorporate poems, photographs, and music that students developed in the previous workshops. This exhibit is also part of the LOLA Arts Make Music Day celebration.

Create. Share. Repeat.
